

I am writing on behalf of 6 registered voters of three generations who live at this address. We strongly oppose the proposed changes. Even worse than the consequences of media consolidation, and allowing individuals to own more of the media is the blatant disregard for public opinion. Please do not allow this support of monopolies, and especially not without any public debate or input.